

Donahey's Events LTD Dance Break Booking Terms, Conditions & Guidelines.

When booking the Dance Break you accept the terms and conditions as outlined below on behalf of your entire party. It's your responsibility to ensure that all members of your party are aware of and accept the whole of these terms and conditions and the obligations contained in them. Our acceptance of your payment forms a contract between us and these conditions apply. We reserve the right to refuse any booking.

If you cancel your booking

Should you, or any member of your party, be forced to cancel your Dance Break booking, you must do so in writing and this letter must be signed by the person who signed the booking form. A cancellation will take effect from the date that written notice is received at our office. All such cancellations will be subject to a charge of a percentage of the total package price, and the following scale indicates the charges;

More than 60 days	50% of the Package Rate
59 days or less	100% of the Package Rate

Changes to your booking

After we have issued your booking confirmation we will do our best to accommodate any changes you may want to make, but we cannot guarantee to do so. The person who made the booking must notify any changes to us in writing. We may be able to offer a name change on your booking, provided you give us reasonable notice and it is at least 14 days prior to the break start date. This person must be able to satisfy all the booking terms & conditions for the break.

In order to enable us to try to meet your request, we would ask where possible you request such changes at least 10 weeks before the break start date. If we are able to make the changes requested we will charge an administration amendment fee of £25 per person per occasion a change is made. This amendment fee must be paid before any change is made. You will remain responsible for ensuring that the holiday is paid for by the balance due date. Any part of a booking not transferred and/or subsequently cancelled will be subject to cancellation charges detailed above. Bookings/places are strictly not for re-sale, the listing of or advertising of your booking in order to re-sell your places is strictly forbidden and will result in the immediate cancellation of your booking with cancellation charges as outlined above.

Rights of admission

For the convenience of all our guests, Donahey's reserve the unconditional right to refuse a booking or to terminate a guest's weekend without compensation where unreasonable behaviour of persons named on the confirmation paperwork or their guests might impair the enjoyment, comfort or health and safety of other guests and our staff. Definition of unreasonable behaviour is solely at the discretion of the management. Only the people named on your booking may participate in the event as described and stay on the premises, otherwise you & they may be asked to leave with no refund payable.

This includes any guest who fails to advise us of a medical condition or of a disability, which prevents their full participation in the weekend programme. If we are not informed in this way we cannot be held responsible for any inconvenience or costs incurred by you and this may include our refusal to complete your weekend arrangements. Cancellation charges of 100% would apply in these circumstances.

Changes to advertised descriptions

We provide our Dance Break descriptions in good faith and every care is taken to ensure the information given on our website and in our publicity is correct. Between publication and your Dance Break, changes can and do sometimes occur. We feel it is right to point out that advertised facilities might be subject to change. We reserve the right to make changes and where they occur; they will be advised to you before the booking contract is concluded. If due to circumstances completely out of our control, any of the advertised performers are unable to appear Donahey's reserves the right to substitution.

Force Majeure

We cannot accept liability where the performance or prompt performance of our contractual obligations is prevented or affected by circumstances amounting to force majeure. Force majeure means any event, which we or the supplier of the services in question could not foresee or avoid. Such events may include but are not limited to war or threat of war, riots, civil strife, terrorist activity, industrial action, mechanical fault, natural or nuclear activity, adverse weather conditions, fire and all similar events outside our control.

Health & Safety

Your health and safety and that of all our guests whilst you enjoy your weekend with us is of paramount importance to us here at Donahey's. In case of emergency please observe the directions of all staff at all times. Please do take the time to familiarise yourselves with the venues Fire Evacuation Procedure. A control of arm & leg movements whilst on the dance floor is vital so as not to be a danger to fellow persons; no drinking whilst on the dance-floor; Spilt drinks should be mopped up immediately; Dancers should not eat or chew whilst dancing; No excessive consumption of alcohol, causing a lack of control and being a danger to oneself & fellow guests; It is your responsibility to take regular breaks to avoid over exertion and to stay hydrated – iced water is always available – just ask.

If you do have any concerns whatsoever, or see something you are unhappy with, please bring it to our immediate attention, thank you.

Complaints procedure

If you have a comment or complaint whilst on the weekend please speak to Hotel reception or a member of Donahey's management. In most cases our team will be able to help you on the spot so that you can enjoy the rest of the weekend. Where this is not the case, please make sure you record the details with the Duty Manager and write to the Manager no later than 21 days after the end of the weekend. Please note we cannot act on any complaint that has not been brought to the attention of the Duty Manager at the time of the incident and is not notified in writing within 21 days of the end of our Weekender. All complaints that are received will be thoroughly investigated. No complaint will be considered unless you follow this procedure.

Smoking Areas

Our venues have a No Smoking Policy throughout. Specific designated outdoor 'Smoking Areas' are available, which you will find clearly signposted.

UK Holiday Insurance

For that extra peace of mind, Donahey's strongly recommend you take up Personal UK Holiday Insurance to cover your booking.

Hotel Special Requests

If you have any specific hotel requests whatsoever such as; extending your stay either side at preferential rates, rooms close to your friends, or wish to upgrade your facilities etc please contact the hotel direct and ask for Conference & Events no sooner than 4-weeks prior to arrival. Contact information will be contained within your booking form.

Booking Confirmation

We will send you your holiday confirmation & joining instructions within 17 days of receiving your signed booking form. This will include directions, workshop times, coach pick-up times etc.

Dress Code

The dress code for the Dance Break is; Workshops casual, comfy clothing with suitable footwear, Evening Black Tie; For men evening suit/bow tie preferred, lounge suit/tie acceptable; Dresses not essential for ladies.

Footwear

You should wear suitable footwear with a non-slip sole whilst on the dance floor at all times. Strictly no steel toe caps, overly high heels, sandals, bare-foot, wedges or flip-flops. If you do not have suitable footwear on Donahey's reserves the right to ask you to step out of the workshop.

Arrival and Departure

Rooms are available from 3.00pm on arrival day. Guests who expect to arrive after 7.00pm should contact the hotel direct to advise of their arrival time. Rooms must be vacated by 10.00am on the day of departure.

Workshops

Please let us know your dancing experience so we can select the workshop best suited to you. To enable each workshop to begin promptly please arrive 10mins beforehand.

If you wish to take different level workshops to your partner/friends that's absolutely fine, unfortunately we wouldn't though be able to accommodate both of you taking each others lessons as well, and we are unable to offer partners to people attending workshops without a partner.

For the enjoyment of all the workshop participants, only workshop participants are allowed into the ballroom during each workshop. This policy is strictly enforced on all our dance breaks, please refrain from asking to sit & watch workshops as refusal may offend.

Filming & Photography

Filming & Photography of all shows and workshops is strictly prohibited. Anyone caught attempting to film or photograph may be asked to leave the Ballroom. Photograph opportunities will be available to us during the evenings, please though, avoid photograph or autograph requests before and after workshops.

Throughout the event we may take official photographs & recorded images. These images may be used in printed publications produced by Donahey's or our partner hotel, on our websites and in promotional videos for marketing purposes. Through your participation in the event you consent to the taking of photograph images & recordings for the sole purpose of TV, press & future event publicity. This may include recordings & images used in regional TV, local newspapers & on official Donahey's & partner hotel websites or in our printed publications.

Refreshments

We strongly recommend bringing refreshments with you to the workshop as there will be no bar facilities available in the afternoon. Our own private Ballroom Bar will be open for us in the evening. Please do not bring your own food & drinks into the Ballroom in the evening as people doing so may be asked to leave the Ballroom.

Personal Property

Donaheys accepts no responsibility for personal belongings whatsoever. Parking, whilst free, is at the owners risk and we accept no liability for loss or damage to vehicles that are parked on the hotel property or at Dukinfield Town Hall. Please do not leave personal belongings unattended in the ballroom during the course of the Dance Break. Pets are not allowed in the hotel or it's grounds, except for guide dogs.

Price

We guarantee that the price of your break will be agreed and shown on your booking confirmation. We reserve the right to increase prices only where there is an increase in VAT or any other tax applicable to your booking. Prices shown are inclusive of VAT at the current rate at time of booking.

Infections or contagious diseases

If any member of your party has or has just had an infection or contagious medical condition we reserve the right to; refuse to accept your booking; cancel your break; or ask any member of your party to be confined to their room or leave the hotel immediately, should we, at our reasonable discretion, consider it necessary to protect the health of other guests, staff or the general public. You should inform us immediately should any such condition develop in any member of your party within 4 weeks of your arrival date or during your break. Cancellation charges outlined above would apply in these circumstances.

Data Protection Policy Statement

Donahey's will use the personal information that you provide to us to process your booking and provide you with your break. We may need to pass your information to third party service providers relevant to meet our obligations to you, for example the hotel. Your information may also be used to send you details of other services offered by Donahey's. If you do not wish to receive such information, please let us know; Donahey's Events LTD, PO BOX 126, Kingsbridge, TQ7 9BB
