1. Booking and Paying for your Holiday

All our advertised package holiday rates include a non-returnable £125 per person deposit, booking & management fee.

A booking is made with us when you pay us a non-refundable deposit, booking & management fee (or full payment if you are booking within 70 days of departure) and we issue you with a booking confirmation, via email. We reserve the right to return your payment and decline to issue a booking confirmation at our absolute discretion.

A contract between you and us will exist when we receive your payment and issue our written confirmation of your booking.

Please check all of the booking confirmation documents that we send you very carefully. If something isn't right, please give us a call straightaway to ensure we have adequate time to rectify any of your concerns.

To qualify for our early bird booking rate, balancing payments must be received in full 10-weeks prior, otherwise our prevailing online rate applies. The balance of the cost of your arrangements (including any applicable surcharge) is due not less than 70 days prior to the start of your holiday. If we do not receive this balance in full and on time, we reserve the right to treat your booking as cancelled by you in which case we shall retain your non-refundable booking & management fee.

If any payment you make is returned unpaid by your bank or card provider, we may have to charge a £25 administration fee plus pass on any bank charges.

2. Cooling Off Period

As a gesture of goodwill we will allow a 24 hour cooling off period from the time of your booking transaction. This is not a legal obligation placed upon us but is offered by us at our discretion only.

3. Accuracy

We endeavour to ensure that all the information and prices both on our website and in our advertising material are accurate, however occasionally changes and errors occur and we reserve the right to correct prices and other details in such circumstances. You must check the current price and all other details relating to the arrangements that you wish to book before you make your booking.

Prices shown are inclusive of VAT at the current rate at time of booking.

4. Insurance

Adequate travel insurance is a condition of your contract with us. You must be satisfied that your insurance fully covers all your personal requirements including, but not limited to, pre-existing medical conditions, cancellation charges, medical expenses.

Your insurance policy should include provisions relating to infectious, contagious & notifiable diseases including respiratory infections such as COVID-19. Covering you for situations including but not limited to where you have tested positive for COVID-19 and are unable to travel. It should also cover you for circumstances related to infectious, contagious & notifiable diseases during your holiday, for example, where you have been diagnosed with COVID-19 during your holiday and are required to curtail your holiday. In these circumstances, your policy should cover you for repatriation where necessary, emergency medical expenses and additional costs of accommodation and/or transport if you need to self-isolate and extend your stay.

If you choose to travel without adequate insurance cover, we will not be liable for any losses howsoever arising, in respect of which insurance cover would otherwise have been available.

5. Pricing

We reserve the right to amend the price of unsold holidays at any time and correct errors in the prices of confirmed holidays. We also reserve the right to increase the price of confirmed holidays solely to allow for increases which are a direct consequence of changes in:

- (i) the level of taxes or fees chargeable for services applicable to the holiday imposed by third parties not directly involved in the performance of the holiday.

You will be charged for the amount of any increase in accordance with this clause. However, if this means that you have to pay an increase of more than 8% of the price of your confirmed holiday (excluding any amendment charges and/or additional services or travel arrangements), you will have the option of accepting a change to another holiday if we are able to offer one (if this is of lower quality you will be refunded the difference in price), or cancelling and receiving a refund of monies paid to us, except for any amendment charges and/or additional services or travel arrangements. Should you decide to cancel for this reason, you must exercise your right to do so within 7 days from the issue date printed on your final invoice.

Should the price of your holiday go down due to the changes mentioned above, then any refund due will be paid to you less an administrative fee of £25. However, please note that travel arrangements are not always purchased in local currency and some apparent changes have no impact on the price of your travel due to contractual and other protection in place.

There will be no change made to the price of your confirmed holiday within 20 days of your departure nor will refunds be paid during this period.

6. Jurisdiction and Applicable Law

These Booking Conditions and any agreement to which they apply are governed in all respects by English law. We both agree that any dispute, claim or other matter which arises between us out of or in connection with your contract or booking will be dealt with by the Courts of England and Wales only. You may however, choose the law and jurisdiction of Scotland or Northern Ireland if you live in those places and if you wish to do so.

7. What if you need to make changes to or transfer your booking?

We will always try our best to accommodate changes to your booking.

If you wish to transfer your booking from the weekend that you originally booked, to another weekend that we operate, then we are typically able to accommodate such a transfer provided: (i) you notify us no less than 70 days before your original start date, and (ii) are looking to transfer to another weekend taking place in the same calendar year. Please Note: All changes of this nature will be subject to availability, if we are able to change the date of the weekend for you then you will be required to pay any difference in price between the two weekends along with an administration fee of £25 per person per change.

For all other changes, if you wish to change any part of your booking after our confirmation invoice has been issued, you must inform us in writing as soon as possible. This should be done by the first named person on the booking. Whilst we will do our best to assist, we cannot guarantee that we will be able to meet your requested change. Where we can meet a request, all changes will be subject to payment of an administration fee of £25 per person per change, as well as any costs and charges incurred by us and/or incurred or imposed by any of our suppliers in making this change. You should be aware that these costs could increase the closer to the departure date that changes are made and you should contact us as soon as possible. Where we are unable to assist you and you do not wish to proceed with the original booking we will treat this as a cancellation by you. A cancellation fee may be payable in accordance with clause 8.

Transfers of Bookings:

If you or any member of your party is prevented from travelling, that person(s) may transfer their place to someone else, subject to the following conditions:

- a. that person is introduced by you and satisfies all the conditions applicable to the holiday;
- b. we are notified not less than 7 days before departure;
- c. you pay any outstanding balance payment, an amendment fee of £25 per person transferring, as well as any additional fees, charges or other costs arising from the transfer; and
- d. the transferee agrees to these booking conditions and all other terms of the contract between us.

You and the transferee remain jointly and severally liable for payment of all sums. If you are unable to find a replacement, cancellation charges as set out in clause 8 will apply in order to cover our estimated costs. Otherwise, no refunds will be given for passengers not travelling or for unused services.

Bookings/places are strictly not for re-sale; the listing of or advertising of your booking in order to re-sell your places is strictly forbidden and will result in the immediate cancellation of your booking with cancellation charges as outlined in clause 8.

8. What if you need to cancel your holiday?

We really hope it doesn't come to this, however should you, or any member of your party, be forced to cancel your holiday, you must notify us in writing and this letter must be signed by the person who signed the booking form. Your notice of cancellation will only take effect when it is received in writing by us at our offices and will be effective from the date on which we receive it.

Should one or more member of a party cancel, it may increase the per person holiday price of those still travelling and you will be liable to pay this increase.

Since we incur costs in cancelling your arrangements, you will have to pay the cancellation charges as follows:

Period before departure in which you notify us	Cancellation Charge
More than 70 days	Deposit, Booking & management fee
Less than 70 days	100% of holiday cost

If the reason for your cancellation is covered under the terms of your insurance policy, you may be able to reclaim these charges.

Where possible, we will deduct the cancellation charge(s) from any monies you have already paid to us.

9. Cancellation following non-arrival

If you haven't arrived by 8am the morning after your holiday start date and you haven't contacted us to confirm when you're going to arrive, we'll treat your holiday as cancelled. In this case you will not be entitled to any refund or transfer.

10. If we change or cancel your holiday

As we plan your holiday arrangements many months in advance we may occasionally have to make changes or cancel your booking and we reserve the right to do so at any time.

Changes: If we make a minor change to your holiday, we will make reasonable efforts to inform you as soon as reasonably possible if there is time before your departure but we will have no liability to you. Examples of minor changes include changes of accommodation to another of the same or higher standard etc. or a change in the line-up of your chosen weekend.

Occasionally we may have to make a significant change to your confirmed arrangements. Examples of "significant changes" include the following, when made before departure:

- (a) A change of accommodation area for the whole or a significant part of your time away.
- (b) A change of accommodation to that of a lower standard or classification for the whole or a significant part of your time away.
- (c) A change of the overall length of your arrangements by more than 12 hours.

Cancellation: We will not cancel your travel arrangements less than 70 days before your departure date, except for reasons of force majeure or failure by you to pay the final balance. We may cancel your holiday before this date if, e.g., the minimum number of clients required for a particular travel arrangement is not reached.

If we have to make a significant change or cancel, we will tell you as soon as possible and if there is time to do so before departure, we will offer you the choice of:

- i (for significant changes) accepting the changed arrangements; or
- ii if available and where we offer one, accepting an offer of an alternative holiday (we will refund any price difference if the alternative is of a lower value); or
- iii having a refund of monies paid, less the non-refundable booking & management fee.

You must notify us of your choice within 7 days of our offer. If we do not hear from you within 7 days, we will contact you again to confirm the change or alternative booking arrangements. If you fail to respond within 7 days again, we will assume that you have chosen to accept the change or alternative booking arrangements.

Compensation

In addition to a refund of monies paid less the non-refundable booking & management fee, we will pay you compensation as detailed below, in the following circumstances:

- (a) If, where we make a significant change, you do not accept the changed arrangements and cancel your booking;

- (b) If we cancel your booking and no alternative arrangements are available and/or we do not offer one.

The compensation that we offer does not exclude you from claiming more if you are entitled to do so.

Period before departure in which we notify you	Amount you will receive from us*
More than 70 days	Nil
Less than 70 days	£5

*IMPORTANT NOTE: We will not pay you compensation in the following circumstances:

- (a) where we make a minor change;
- (b) where we make a significant change or cancel your arrangements more than 70 days before departure;
- (c) where we make a significant change and you accept those changed arrangements or you accept an offer of alternative travel arrangements;
- (d) where we have to cancel your arrangements as a result of your failure to make full payment on time;
- (e) where the change or cancellation by us arises out of alterations to the confirmed booking requested by you;
- (f) where we are forced to cancel or change your arrangements due to Force Majeure (see clause 11).

If we become unable to provide a significant proportion of the arrangements that you have booked with us after you have departed, we will, if possible, make alternative arrangements for you at no extra charge and where those alternative arrangements are of a lower standard, provide you with an appropriate price reduction.

Please Note: If the entertainment booked for your break changes we will always try to notify you before you arrive. However, Donaheys reserve the right to substitute shows without prior notice or refund.

Any compensation payments due to a change of line-up will be made at the discretion of Donaheys and in all cases will be limited to an amount equal to the fee which the original artiste was contracted, less the amount due to be paid to a replacement artiste and the resulting figure shared equally amongst the number of full paying bona fide adult guests resident when the non-appearance occurred.

11. Force Majeure

Except where otherwise expressly stated in these Booking Conditions we will not be liable to pay you compensation if our contractual obligations to you are affected by "Force Majeure". For the purposes of these Booking Conditions, Force Majeure means any event beyond our or our supplier's control, the consequences of which could not have been avoided even if all reasonable measures had been taken. Examples include warfare and acts of terrorism (and threat thereof), civil strife, epidemics, pandemics, significant risks to human health such as the outbreak of serious disease at the travel destination or natural disasters such as floods, earthquakes or weather conditions which make it impossible to travel safely to the venue for the weekend or remain at the venue, the act of any government or other national or local authority including port or river authorities, industrial dispute, labour strikes, lock closure, natural or nuclear disaster, fire, chemical or biological disaster, unavoidable technical problems with transport and all similar events outside our or the supplier(s) concerned's control.

12. Our responsibilities:

(1) We will accept responsibility for the arrangements we agree to provide or arrange for you as an "organiser" under the Package Travel and Linked Travel Arrangements Regulations 2018, as set out below and as such, we are responsible for the proper provision of all travel services included in your package, as set out in your confirmation invoice. Subject to these Booking Conditions, if we or our suppliers negligently perform or arrange those services and we don't remedy or resolve your complaint within a reasonable period of time, and this has affected the enjoyment of your package holiday you may be entitled to an appropriate price reduction or compensation or both. You must inform us without undue delay of any failure to perform or improper performance of the travel services included in this package. The level of any such price reduction or compensation will be calculated taking into consideration all relevant factors such as but not limited to: following the complaints procedure as described in these Booking Conditions and the extent to which ours or our employees' or suppliers' negligence affected the overall enjoyment of your holiday. Please note that it is your responsibility to show that we or our supplier(s) have been negligent if you wish to make a claim against us.

(2) We will not be responsible or pay you compensation for any injury, illness, death, loss, damage, expense, cost or other claim of any description if it results from:

- (a) the acts and/or omissions of the person affected; or

- (b) the acts and/or omissions of a third party unconnected with the provision of the services contracted for and which were unforeseeable or unavoidable; or
 - (c) Force Majeure (as defined in clause 11).
- (3) We limit the amount of compensation we may have to pay you if we are found liable under this clause:
- (a) loss of and/or damage to any luggage or personal possessions and money: the maximum amount we will have to pay you in respect of these claims is an amount equivalent to the excess on your insurance policy which applies to this type of loss per person in total because you are required to have adequate insurance in place to cover any losses of this kind.
 - (b) Claims not falling under (a) above and which don't involve injury, illness or death: the maximum amount we will have to pay you in respect of these claims is up to three times the price paid by or on behalf of the person(s) affected in total. This maximum amount will only be payable where everything has gone wrong and you or your party has not received any benefit at all from your booking.
 - (c) Claims in respect of any stay in a hotel:
 - i) The extent of our liability will in all cases be limited as if we were carriers under the appropriate Conventions, which include The Paris Convention (with respect to hotel arrangements). You can ask for copies of these Conventions from our offices.
 - ii) When making any payment, we are entitled to deduct any money which you have received or are entitled to receive from the hotelier for the complaint or claim in question.
- (4) It is a condition of our acceptance of liability under this clause that you notify any claim to us and our supplier(s) strictly in accordance with the complaints procedure set out in these conditions.
- (5) Where any payment is made, the person(s) receiving it (and their parent or guardian if under 18 years) must also assign to us or our insurers any rights they may have to pursue any third party and must provide ourselves and our insurers with all assistance we may reasonably require.
- (6) Please note, we cannot accept any liability for any damage, loss or expense or other sum(s) of any description:
- (a) which on the basis of the information given to us by you concerning your booking prior to our accepting it, we could not have foreseen you would suffer or incur if we breached our contract with you;
 - (b) relate to any business;
 - (c) indirect or consequential loss of any kind.
- (7) We will not accept responsibility for services or facilities which do not form part of our agreement or where they are not advertised in our brochure. For example any excursion you book whilst away, or any service or facility which your hotel or any other supplier agrees to provide for you.

Where this is not the case, and you wish to complain further, you must send formal written notice of your complaint to us at our office, ideally within 28 days of the end of your stay, giving your booking reference and all other relevant information. Failure to follow the procedure set out in this clause may affect ours and the applicable supplier's ability to investigate your complaint, and will affect your rights under this contract.

If, despite our best efforts and having followed the above procedure for reporting and resolving your complaint, you feel that it has not been satisfactorily settled, we recommend that it is referred for arbitration under the ABTOT Travel Industry Arbitration Service.
